Transit Trivia Returns to the New York Transit Museum! Pub-style trivia night on Wednesday, January 20th from 6:30 – 8:30 pm

What shape was cut out of the last version of the subway token? Where is the highest subway station in the world? Think you know the transit system backwards and forwards? Put that knowledge to good use by driving your team to victory at the Transit Museum's 4th annual Transit Trivia Night!

Train enthusiasts, NYC history aficionados, pop culture buffs, and mavens of minutiae alike will compete for the crown on January 20th from 6:30 to 8:30 pm in a trivia showdown hosted by quizmasters Stuart Post and Chris Kelley.

Study up for five rounds of questions featuring all new content in a variety of formats, including videos, audio tracks, photos and puzzles. Topics will run the gamut from obscure transit facts to subterranean pop culture.

Last year's event sold out, with close to 200 contestants and 42 teams participating. Hustle up a team of two-to-six transit superstars or come on your own and link up with fellow straphangers. Prizes and New York City Transit bragging rights will be awarded to the winners. Will your team take the Q & A express train to victory?

Tickets are now on sale for $15 ($10 for Museum members) and include one free drink. Beer lovingly provided by Brooklyn Brewery.
