- Dance along to the sensory-friendly DJ REBORN
- Light refreshments will be served

10AM–12PM

- Head to the platform to encounter a visitor from the past
- Create your own subway themed art
- Take a break in our relaxing chill out room

This FREE event is for children with special needs and their families. Registration is required. Please visit www.nytransitmuseum.org/SpecialDayforSpecialKids to sign up!

A welcoming space for children with disabilities and their families to socialize, create and play.

The New York Transit Museum is located in a historic subway station on the corner of Boerum Place and Schermerhorn Street in Downtown Brooklyn.

The 2, 3, 4, 5, A, C, F, R, and G subway trains are all just a few blocks from the Museum.

The Transit Museum has two flights of stairs to the lobby and one flight of stairs to the platform. The Museum is wheelchair accessible via a lift that must be operated by staff. Call 718.694.1823 or e-mail access@nytransitmuseum.org to make arrangements for using the lift.
