Subway Shindig for Families: Subways Got Game! Thursday, July 20th from 6pm – 8pm

Get your subway game on! Join the New York Transit Museum in Downtown Brooklyn for an evening of classic board games and kooky contests on July 20th. At this Shindig, the Museum's fleet of vintage subway cars will host rounds of classic board games like Monopoly, Pictionary, Sorry!, and Scrabble, as well as competitions of subway bowling, ring toss, water bottle flip challenges, and of course the classic Rock-Paper-Scissors.

Subways Got Game! is the New York Transit Museum's ninth Subway Shindig for Families. While many young people visit the Transit Museum during school or summer camp visits, the Museum's Subway Shindig provides a great opportunity for families to enjoy the Museum together, with an evening of special family-friendly activities planned from 6pm to 8pm. Since 2014, families have flocked to the Transit Museum's Subway Shindig events to spend time together, play games, and learn about transportation history.

ABOUT NEW YORK TRANSIT MUSEUM:

The New York Transit Museum is the largest museum in the United States devoted to urban public transportation history and one of the premier institutions of its kind in the world. The Museum explores the development of the greater New York metropolitan region through the presentation of exhibitions, tours, educational programs and workshops dealing with the cultural, social and technological history of public transportation. Since its inception more than forty years ago, the Museum – which is housed in a historic 1936 IND subway station in Downtown Brooklyn – has grown in scope and popularity. As custodian and interpreter of the region's extensive public transportation networks, the Museum strives to share through its public programs this rich and vibrant history with local, regional, and international audiences.
